

ENGL 251: American Folklore & Culture

Spring 2021

Instructor: Hathaway

CRN 16049 (Honors CRN 16192)

Tuesdays & Thursdays 4-5:15 pm

What do you think of when you think of “folklore”? The latest Taylor Swift album? Fairy tales, ghost stories, and the like? What about dank memes? Pepperoni rolls? Practical jokes?

This class explores the dynamic process that is folklore, and how relevant and reflective it is of the contemporary world.

For you Appalachian Studies minors: this course is part of the minor, and we’ll talk about lots of Appalachian examples throughout the semester! (For example, why is John Henry located in Alabama in this map?!)
