

Discover the World of Shakespeare! Unravel the genius of the greatest playwright of all time! Enroll in ENG 263: Shakespeare's Plays

Explore power, love, ambition, jealousy, and betrayal through the vivid characters and unforgettable stories in Shakespeare's works. Whether you're a seasoned reader of his plays or encountering them for the first time, this course will unlock the beauty, humor, and depth behind every verse.

Why take this course?

- Dive into timeless stories like Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, Macbeth, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and more.
- Understand Shakespeare's impact on modern literature, film, and theater.
- Engage with performances, film adaptations, and lively discussions that bring the Bard's words to life.
- Improve your analytical and writing skills through close reading of texts and creative assignments.

Who should enroll?

- Students passionate about literature, drama, or history.
- Anyone curious about how 400-year-old plays still resonate today.
- Those looking to explore themes of identity, politics, and human nature.

What you'll gain:

- A deeper appreciation of Shakespeare's mastery of language and storytelling.
- Insights into the cultural, historical, and political context of Elizabethan England.
- The ability to interpret and critically analyze complex texts.

Class Details:

- Course Title: Shakespeare's Plays (ENG 263)
- Semester: Spring 2025
- Meeting Times: Monday, Wednesday, Friday | 12:30PM – 1:20PM
- Instructor: Dr. David Stewart
- Prerequisites: None – all are welcome!