“Good writing is always about things that are important to you, things that are scary to you, things that eat you up.”

— John Edgar Wideman

English 212 will not scare you nor will it eat you up, but we will blaze through exciting contemporary fiction, focus on the qualities that make a piece of fiction work, write, share, revise, and write some more. We’ll discuss, take risks, experiment with language, and in the end produce work we’re sure to be proud to call our own.

“Two or three things I know for sure and one of them is that to go on living, I have to tell stories, that stories are the one sure way I know to touch the heart and change the world.”

Dorothy Allison
