

English 261: British Literature I

Professor Francus
Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:30-12:45
Fall 2023

Featuring:

Beowulf and Grendel
The Wife of Bath and her five husbands
Thomas More and the Utopians
Oroonoko and Imoinda

Gawain and the Green Knight
Queen Elizabeth I
Adam, Eve, and Satan
Fantomina

....and a cast of thousands.

By studying early British literature, not only will students in English 261 understand British literature, culture, and history, but they will also shed light on their own cultural experience.

English 261 fulfills the historical breadth requirement for English majors, the GEF Arts & Creativity distribution requirement.