

ENGL 405: Young Adult Literature

Spring 2021

Instructor: Hathaway

CRN 12935

Tuesdays & Thursdays 1:00-2:15pm

Young adult literature has grown well beyond John Green and the usual teen angst novel. In recent years, writers of color have been telling stories about adolescents who don't fit the white, middle-class suburban stereotype that has dominated the genre for so long. Come explore the diverse world of contemporary YA lit in this class!

For more information about the authors in the above pic, scan me!

