AND MORE!

This is an introductory course for reading and writing poetry. Together, we will explore the work of contemporary poets to develop our understanding of what poetry is and what it can do. You will write your own poetry and read that of your peers, and through guided workshops we will give one another constructive feedback on our work. I hope you'll join us in the spring!

Mon / Wed / Fri
2:30pm - 3:20pm
